

PROMOTING PARENT INVOLVEMENT

Parents can involve themselves with the Title I program:

1. Developing the Parent Compact.
2. Read all communication and newsletters sent home from the Title I Program.
3. Attending open house and parent teacher conferences on a regular basis.
4. Cooperating with suggestions given for your child's academic success:
  - a. Positive reinforcement to build motivation
  - b. Setting goals.
  - c. Listening to your child read nightly.
  - d. Reinforcing study skills.
  - e. Developing responsibility.
  - f. Checking homework for quality work.
  - g. Review spelling words and sight words sent home.
  - h. Work on letters and sounds in appropriate grades.
  - i. Sign the Parent Compact.
5. Attending Title I Night
6. Provide for a quiet place for your child to read at home.
7. Ask questions for comprehension using Questioning Sheet sent home.

Title I Teacher promotes Parent Involvement:

1. Send home a monthly newsletter informing parents of skills they can reinforce at home.
2. Purchase and send home ABC cards for letter identification.
3. Send home printing paper for manuscript practice.
4. Send home work completed throughout the week for parents to review.
5. Compile a list of Questioning techniques for Non-Fiction and Fiction Text for parents.
6. Send home board games to reinforce skills in their area of difficulty.
7. Plan Title I Night.
8. Host a Spring Picnic for students to conclude the year of learning.
9. Work cooperatively with teachers to ensure parents stay informed as to their child's progress.
10. Send home Title 1 Report at the end of each nine week period. Includes academic and behavioral information.